~ Her Life ~

On December 24, 1955, Pauline Marie Quintana and Donald Tivy gave birth to one of God's most precious gifts, a baby girl which they named Erna Mae Tivy. Erna was raised in the city of San Francisco, California where she completed her education through the San Francisco Public School system. Erna had a special liking for children. She worked with Youth Programs at Mission Delores in San Francisco.

Erna worked as a secretary for the campaign office of Ed Lo Pal.

On October 5, 1980, Erna Tivy married Herbert B. Hayter. They soon relocated to the city of Antioch, California where Erna attended the Roman Catholic Church and often visited the Little Chapel Church Of God In Christ in San Francisco with her husband and family.

With great sadness and heavy hearts, on October 23, 2002, Erna Mae Hayter saw the door of eternal life in front of her. She opened the door of eternal life and silently closed the door of life on us, and slipped away. Her absence is visibly and profoundly felt by those in whom she had daily contact with.

Erna Mae Hayter leaves to cherish her memory: her wonderful husband of 22 years, Herbert B. Hayter of Antioch, CA; one sister, Donna Quintana of San Francisco, CA; two daughters, Dolores Tivy of Pittsburgh, CA. and Darryalene Olaya-Hayter of Antioch, CA; one stepson, Daimein Hayter of San Francisco, CA; two grandsons, David Tivy and D'Paris Williams of Antioch, CA; two granddaughters, Alicia Mendoza and Kayla Johnson of Antioch, CA; four sisters-in-law: Leatha Williams and Dorothy Butler of Antioch, CA; Helen Hayter of Pittsburg, CA and Rosie Hayter of San Francisco, CA; two brothers- in-law, Charlie Hayter of Pittsburg, CA and Percy Hayter of San Francisco, CA; one uncle, Joe Quintana and one aunt, Delores Quintana of Sunnyvale, CA; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

It's not goodbye, it's just goodnight. We'll see her again.
